der; which were severally read and adopted.

Resolved, That the increased proportion of the free people of colour in this state, to the white population, attests the evils growing out of the connection and unrestrained asso-ciation with the slaves, their habits and manner of obtaining a subsistence, and their withdrawing a large portion of em-ployment from the labouring class of the white population, are subjects of momentous and grave consideration to the good ple of this state.

Resolved, That as philanthropists and lovers of freedom, we deplore the existence of slavery amongst us, and would use our utmost exertions to ameliorate its condition, yet we consider the unrestricted power of manumission as fraught with ultimate evils of a more dangerous tendency than the circumstance of slavery alone, and that any act, having for its philes the mitigation of these joint and any act, and inconsistent of the circumstance of slavery alone, and that any act, having for the prince of these joint and the consistent of the circumstance of the c with other paramount considerations, would be worthy the attention and deliberation of the representatives of a free liberal-minded and enlightened people.

Resolved, That we consider the colonization of free people of colour in Africa as the commencement of a system, by which, if judicious encouragement be afforded, these evils may be measurably diminished, so that in process of time, the relative proportion of the black to the white population. will hardly be matter for serious or unpleasant consideration.
